

To whom it might concern,

It is my privilege to enthusiastically recommend Brando Bravo. I have been impressed with his commitment and drive to excel. I have seen Brando's work and I have to say it is clean, precise, professional. In addition to being a skilled artist, he brings great enthusiasm and a passion for animation.

I have no doubts as to Brando's very strong desire to gain even more knowledge and be an asset on any project he is assigned to. I have observed his drawing and animation abilities, and his professionalism is stellar. Brando can adapt and go from style to style, also Brando can work both traditionally and digitally, since he is a 2D and 3D animator. I am sure the additional professional experience would further drive him to create an even stronger body of work.

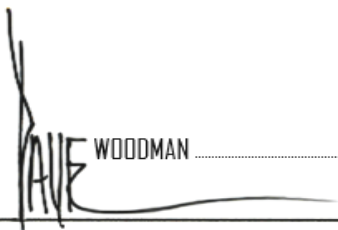

The ability to get along with others and contribute to the harmony in a studio is another strength Brando can bring to your team. Productive delivery of finished tasks without resistance or power play shall be an asset for meeting your deadlines.

I strongly feel Brando would make an excellent addition to your team. He is great at working with a team or independently and is great at taking feedback and implementing it.
